A gentleman who has read the Clowes report said this afternoon:

"The newspapers would give $1,000 for one page of that Clowes report. It would create a sensation."

After a recess for luncheon Mr. Cole continued his evidence, telling of Dr. Henderson's appointment to a position in the hospital.

The witness was interrupted by Senator Rison, who asked if Dr. Henderson had not been selected because of his support of Governor Montague.

No witness denied this.

"Did not Mr. Clowes say in your presence that Dr. Henderson was a supporter of Governor Montague," asked Senator Rison.

"I do not think so," replied Mr. Cole Chairman Sadler here interrupted, say-ing that the question of politics had nothing to do with this investigation. "It has all to do with it," retorted Sen-

Next came the description of the horrible condition of the Montague building, which, although but three years built, had been infested with bed bugs through the negligence of the officials. Mr. Cole went into the matter thoroughly, telling how he and Mr. Clowes had called attention to the evil to the superintendent, and how they had literally killed the vermin by the hundreds with their own hands.

From which he made the deduction that the general prosperity of the country was due more largely to the cotton crop than to any other commodity. With San Francisco's Chinatown, the largest Chinese settlement outside of China, destroyed—it occupied 10 square hlocks in the city's heart—a new Chinese city will be built on the Pacific coast. A site will be purchased by a syndicate of Hongkong merchants, who already have the scheme well under way.

This information came to the Chinese merchants of New York yesterday. Thoy were asked to lend a helping hand, so that the work of laying the foundation of the new city could be begun immediately. Tai Y. Hee, of the importing house of Phong, Fat & Co., at 20 West Twonty-second Street, who has been named to head a Chinese rollef committee her, said yesterday that the new Chinese city would probably be built at a point near San Francisco, right on the beach.

One of the big importers in New York's Chinatown said yesterday that several thousand of the burned-out Chinamen would probably come East and settle in New York. If they do this, he said, they would undoubledly bring their Chinese wives, so that, instead of having half a dozen Chinese women hers, New Yorkers would see 400 or 500. The Chinese women of San Francisco dressed very gaudily, with loose-fitting blouses of generous dimensions. They painted their faces so that the paint was easily discernable. cernable.

Two Fast Sporting Events.

Two interesting events are scheduled for to-morrow night in the hig rink at the Reservoir. The first event will be a con-mile race between Tom Fogg and Eddle Vaughan. This will be followed by a three-mile relay team race between two boys' teams under the leadership of Robert Frayser and Walter Newton, two coming fast skaters.

Both of these events will furnish excitment enough for one evening, as Fogg and Vaughan are old time rivals from the beginning of the relay team racing in the life rink. The boys' teams are practicing every day, and each side is equally confident of winning the go.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—Admiral Dewey was the guest of honor yesterday at a dinner given at the Ralloigh Hotel to celebrate an occurrence eight years ago yesterday, when, at sunties, an American fleet under Dewey, salled into Manila Bay and sunk the Spanish ships.

The dinner was attended by naval officers who had been with the fleet in the fight.

In speaking of the Manila Bay victory yesterday, Admiral Dewey gave, some unwritten history concerning it.'

"When we were at Hong Kong, our condition was critical," he said. "We had but little ammunition, and had it not been for the timely arrival of the cruiser Baltimore forty-eight hours because of the first that he results and the concerning it and the outer world was completely severed.

"I hear you have cut the cables."

"Yes," said Admiral Dewey.

"Yes," said Admiral Dewey.

"Yes," said Admiral Dewey.

"There is," the other responded, and in three hours the other cable wits also the market of the prices and the outer world was completely severed.
